

Mending Our Strength

In the face of unspeakable tragedy, we find resilience. This illustration symbolizes the unwavering spirit of a nation piecing itself back together after the heartbreaking loss of six hostages in Hamas tunnels. Each careful stitch represents the collective effort to heal, remember, and move forward with dignity. It speaks to the resilience of the human spirit and the unbreakable bonds of national identity.