

ISRAEL @ CAMP

ACTIVITY GUIDE

What does it mean to be an Israel infused camp? From Hebrew signage and artwork to Israeli games, discussion, and more, explore interactive materials designed for camp to enhance and transform your environment and programs.

Infusing Israel at Camp

Check out these ideas of simple ways to weave Israel into the everyday fabric of camp!

theicenter.org/israelatcamp

Israel Resource Cards

Discover many of Israel's stories and deepen personal connections among and between participants with this deck of cards.

theicenter.org/resourcecards

Israel Conversation Guide

Start a conversation to link timely events coming out of Israel to the timeless values of our people and our story.

theicenter.org/israelconversationguide

Design Duty: Israeli Artists as Activists

Process and learn about life in Israel since October 7 through challenging and powerful graphic posters by Israeli artists.

theicenter.org/designduty

Authentic Voices of Israel

One thing that we and our campers need in this time, is to hear authentic Israeli voices, the words and experiences of those on the ground.

theicenter.org/authenticvoices

Soundtracks for this Time: Music after October 7

In the wake of October 7 new Israeli music has reflected the country's mood, and older songs have taken on new meaning. Bring this timely Israeli music into your camp's programs with these playlists, lyrics, and more.

theicenter.org/soundtracks

Israeli Music Playlists

Crank it up in the dining room, cabins, and outdoor gathering areas with this mix of the latest Israeli music and classics.

theicenter.org/playlists

Hebrew Slang

Ready to use Hebrew slang like an Israeli? Yalla! Put up these vibrant posters around camp and weave fun Hebrew slang into activities, big and small.

theicenter.org/hebrewslang

Tastes and Smells of Israel

Get to know these Israeli chefs and explore delicious recipes that you can make to bring Israeli stories, aromas, and flavors into your own kitchens!

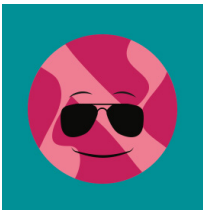

theicenter.org/tastesandsmells

Israeli 'Mad Libs'

Bring in stories of Israel in a creative and funny way. These can be used as a bedtime or menucha activity, or as part of a larger program.

theicenter.org/madlibs

Eich Atem Margishim Hayom Mood Posters

These colorful posters infuse Hebrew into social emotional learning. Useful for staff meetings and check-ins with campers.

theicenter.org/moodposters

Israeli Birthday Games: Sibah L'Mesibah

Spice up campers' birthdays with loads of Israeli Yom Huledet fun! For starters, check out how to make a birthday crown!

theicenter.org/birthday

HaYehudim Ba'im: Satirical Sketches and How to Use Them

This show brings an authentically-Israeli sense of humor to camp to spark important conversations about Israel and Jews around the world.

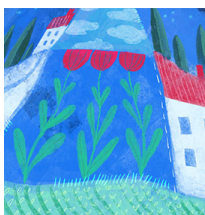

theicenter.org/hayehudimbaim

The Pulse of Israel

This collection delves into the questions that are essential to understanding modern Israel. Activities, discussion questions, and much more await!

theicenter.org/pulseofisrael

Artwork for Your Space

In addition to using these illustrations as artwork for your walls, they can also be used to spark conversations about strength, loss, growth, and change.

theicenter.org/artwork

